ELADIO DIAZ

ANUNNAKI

In homage to these ancient inhabitants, the Don Emmanuel brand will launch its first line of cigars, drawing inspiration from the creators of humanity in Sumerian mythology, the Annunaki. Their story, recorded in 14 tablets from the 24th century BC, unveils their arrival on Earth 440,000 years ago from the planet Nibiru in pursuit of gold for their atmosphere. Associated with the construction of monuments like the Egyptian pyramids, they shared knowledge with humans, a reference found in the Book of Enoch, which is excluded from the Bible. The upcoming cigar line will pay tribute to this rich history and heritage.
